Bar Snacks & Raffle
(Every "egg night" Friday)

Bar volunteers are needed to work at the Club for a few hours a week. The Club will pay for volunteers' Responsible Serving of Alcohol course, delivered online as well as at TasTAFE face to face. Please contact Gaby, our Secretary/Treasurer or any Committee members if you can help.

The Club says "thank you." The Committee takes this opportunity to acknowledge and thank Harry Engel for his years of faithful service to the Club behind the bar as well as purchasing stock for the bar. His generosity has allowed for the smooth operation of our Club's functions for a number of years.

The Club would like to thank Danny Blaschke for donating a crayfish and bottle of wine for one of our "Egg Friday" raffles. Martin sold the tickets, Horst Meister won the raffle, and the Club raised $110.00 which was all profit for the Club!

The Club would like to thank Peter Seely and Maree Bongard for helping out at the April Schnitzelessen. Without their help, we would not have been able to feed the almost 70 members and friends who attended.

It is very pleasing to see that members are supporting the Club by attending our functions especially the Schnitzelessen and Hand Craft Group afternoon teas.

you!

Egg night bar snacks are proving very popular thanks to Martin. We have enjoyed vienna in bread, cheese, gherkins and kabana as well as party pies and sausage rolls. Stay around for the snacks, donate to the meat tray raffle and have a jolly good evening every Egg Friday night.

New lights are up in the dining room and bar – nice clean lines and bright LED lighting.

RÜCKBLICK UND NEUIGKEITEN PAST AND PRESENT NEWS

Choir News: The Choir had a very successful and fun filled tour to the north of the state from 17th to 20th March. Their first engagement was in Deloraine at Grenoch House. Here, members also took the opportunity to visit the Art Museum, which was very impressive by all accounts. The next morning, the Choir sang at the Fred French Home in Launceston, and later at Kanangra Hostel in Deloraine. Next day, the Choir also had two engagements; Presbyterian Care in Legana, followed by a short visit to Grindelwald, then at Sandhill Aged Care in Launceston. Sandhill residents were so impressed they provided the coordinator with a written report, indicating that they thoroughly enjoyed the wonderful and spectacular entertainment..."absolutely, marvellous, very talented, very much appreciated...". That evening the Choir dined at the Launceston Country Club Casino where they were joined by the Klein's children who reside in Launceston. The Choir was accommodated each night at the Discovery Park cabins in Hadspen, and each night all sixteen congregated in one cabin for the evening meal, a sing song and joke telling. On the final day, the Choir travelled to Low Head to perform at Ainslie House. They then travelled home, with a stop at Ross. The Choir is most grateful to the Migrant Resource Centre for the loan of the bus, and for their safe passage by driver Peter Fluckiger. All sixteen had a thoroughly wonderful tour and were pleased that they could bring happiness to the many people they entertained.

Movie Afternoons: On Saturday 30 May at 13:00 Hauptmann von Köpenick (1956 film, starring Heinz Rühmann) will be screening. The film is based on the true story of Prussian-born Wilhelm Voigt, a shoemaker and minor criminal. The film will be shown with English subtitles and a short intermission.

On Saturday 27 June at 13:00 Blauer Engel (1930, black-and-white, 100 minutes) starring Marlene Dietrich will be screening at the Club. The film features the famous song "Ich bin von Kopf bis Fuß auf Liebe eingestellt" composed by Friedrich Hollaender. English subtitles will be included and there may be a short intermission. Cost, which includes coffee and cake is $5.00; the bar will also be open. The films are provided courtesy of the National Film and Sound Archive. There will be a brief introduction in German before the screenings.

Special thanks go to Tim Woodward who is largely responsible for sourcing and organising the Club's Movie Afternoons.
