PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We're in the middle of winter now and the club heaters are working overtime but it's always warm when we have one of our functions on. It's been nice to see so many happy smiling faces at all the functions recently. It's especially great to see new members finding us (often through word-of-mouth, good things are hard to keep secret) and joining in. Besides our ever-popular schnitzel days, we've had a yummy German breakfast and the Czech club hosted a fantastic BBQ. Check out the Meals & Events page to see what's planned and don't forget to save those dates.

For those asking, yes, we're still planning on having a bonfire, we're just waiting for the wood to dry. Maybe October? Keep an eye out for a notice in the club or in the next newsletter.

Our AGM is on 15 August. Please support your committee and club by coming along, voting and sharing the afternoon with us.

Between now and then, I'll see you at the club.
